

Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere

Martin Luther King, Jr. "A Letter from Birmingham Jail"

Building Bridges Workshop

Civil Liberties in Peril

Join Muslims, Unitarian Universalists, and other members of the Seattle-area community for a day of discussion, learning, and networking.

We will explore civil-liberties issues that come up on the job, at school, at the border, and in public spaces — and what we can do about them.

Keynote Speaker: Captain James Yee

Former Muslim chaplain at Guantanamo Bay
Author of For God and Country

Additional presenters from the following organizations:

- American Civil Liberties Union
- American Muslims of Puget Sound
- Bill of Rights Defense Committee
- Council on American-Islamic Relations
- East Shore Unitarian Church
- Edmonds Universalist Unitarian Church
- Muslim Association of Puget Sound
- OneAmerica
- Unitarian Universalist Service Committee
- University Unitarian Church

When:
Saturday,
May 21, 2011

Morning session 8:45am — 12:15pm***
- Overview of civil liberties
- Keynote speaker: James Yee

Afternoon session: 12:15pm — 5:00pm***
- Personal stories and regional events
- Advocacy planning

*Please register for each session at Brown Paper Tickets.

Where:
East Shore Unitarian Church
12700 SE 32nd St.
Bellevue, WA 98005-4317
425-747-3780

For information and registration:
Brown Paper Tickets
www.brownpapertickets.com/event/166272
$5 preregistration
$8 day of workshop
Students free
Lunch and child care provided
Carpooling encouraged; limited parking

For more information, contact Pete at averyguest@gmail.com or 206-601-2708

