Featuring

Bill Harley, Grammy Award-winning musician, storyteller, author and playwright. "Children and families are held up and grow in a web of culture that surrounds them" says Bill. Using song and story he will take us on a journey through the common life and wealth we share. Bill will deliver the keynote address, a workshop and Saturday afternoon concert. "Humor is my weapon" he says.

Peter Morales, new UUA President, will attend a Saturday reception and deliver the sermon at Sunday worship service. "The potential for us to be a vital participant in American religious life and really touch the lives of tens of thousands of people is a very real possibility." Peter believes that growth is best accomplished at the congregational level, through simple acts of hospitality.
